The North America Taiwanese Women's Association (NATWA) was founded in Los Angeles in 1988 as a non-profit organization. To learn more about NATWA, please visit our website at www.natwa.com. In 2002, NATWA Board passed an initiative to recruit members from younger generations to form "NATWA II". The purpose of NATWA II is three-fold: (1) to establish a network consisted of young Taiwanese American women and (2) to cultivate and promote talents among young Taiwanese American women, and (3) to preserve Taiwanese culture and promote Taiwanese American identity. For more information, please e-mail natwa2@natwa.com.
